

Elementary School students are encouraged to begin reading books from the 2022 Honors Reading List and to use their Summer Narration Journals provided at the end of the school year. There are no required books to read over the summer.