Middle School Bible Teacher

ECCS is seeking candidates for the position of Middle School Bible Teacher for the 2024-2025 school year. Candidates for this position must be in agreement with the school theology, philosophy and methodology of teaching. Candidates must also hold knowledge and abilities in teaching the ECCS Bible curriculum from a reformed, covenantal, gospel-centered, missional, and relational perspective. To these ends, we seek a teacher with qualifications in the following areas:

- Communicates a passion for teaching and learning both in the classroom and in life.
- Demonstrates a commitment to developing and maintaining positive teacher/student relationships and promotes student engagement through their teaching.
- Understands and embraces the philosophy of the covenant school and its uniqueness. Stays current on recent trends, innovations, and research in teaching content.
- Develops instruction plans, prepares materials and prepares the classroom for class activities. Insures the implementation of the Middle School Bible curriculum according to the scope and sequence provided by school administration.
- Utilizes Bible curriculum and instruction towards the end of leading students to learn about, grow, and mature in their relationship with Christ as Lord and Savior of their lives and as ministers of the gospel to others in words and deeds.
- Observes and evaluates students' knowledge of and ability to apply biblical truth through Bible verse memorization, learning/studying the catechism, Bible study, class projects and other assessments. Keeps appropriate student records.
- Effectively integrates lessons with other academic subjects where appropriate and with biblical principles showing a proper understanding of the child as an image bearer as well as a sinner in need of a savior.
- Maintains a classroom atmosphere consistent with the school philosophy and utilizes classroom management skills that promote an orderly, positive, and creative/natural learning environment.
- Understands the parent as the primary educator of the child and the need to work to maintain a positive parent and teacher partnership.
- Keeps parents and administration adequately informed of student progress or deficiencies and gives sufficient notice of issues requiring intervention.
- Uses opportunities to display student work which positively demonstrates student learning, communicates the rich ECCS curriculum to parents and visitors, and creates an inviting classroom atmosphere.
- Participates in all calendared school functions (including parent meetings, school programs and special events), staff development days, in-service and post planning days.
- Biblical instruction training and/or Education degree along with teaching certificate is preferred.
- Prior middle school and/or Bible instructional experience is preferred.

The ideal candidate for this position is someone who is passionate about approaching middle school Bible education as the development of relationships with God, His creation, others, and themselves. This position is part-time (approximately 70% of FT) with the possibility of being combined with other duties to become a full time position. The salary for this position is commensurate with the candidate's education, certification and experience. Interested candidates should send their resume with a cover letter to billy.creech@eccs.org.
