Out of Uniform

Out-of-uniform days are noted on the school calendar. On such days, students are expected to dress according to the modesty code.

- All clothing must be neat, well fitting, and well maintained.
- All clothing must be modest, not too tight or too revealing.
- Jeans must be in accordance with the policy specified in the Casual Friday section of the code, as applicable by age and gender.
- If belt loops are present, a belt must be worn.
- Girls' skirts, shorts/skorts must meet the required length (see modesty guidelines above).
- Athletic shorts are acceptable as long as they meet the required length (see modesty guidelines above).
- No bike shorts, leggings, or other tight-fitting bottoms may be worn without shorts, dresses, or a skirt on top of them.
- Boys' shorts must meet the required length (see modesty guidelines above)
- T-shirts are acceptable, but any clothing with suggestive, distasteful or distracting words, slogans, or images are unacceptable. No sleeveless t-shirts are allowed.
- Modest sleeveless shirts/dresses are allowed for girls. No tank tops are allowed.
- Hats may not be worn inside the building.
- Open toed shoes are acceptable for out-of-uniform days, as long as it is not a PE day.
- No Crocs or similar slip-on shoes allowed at any time.

Violations

- K-3 Students who have a dress code violation:
 - lose the privilege of wearing jeans and t-shirts that Friday and must wear their regular uniform.
 - Repeated violations by the same student may result in loss of that dress code element or other action as deemed applicable/necessary by the teacher.
- 4-5 Students who have a dress code violation:
 - must wear dressy uniform on Friday of that week.
 - If the same student is out of dress code a second time that week or continues to have a problem adhering to the dress code, more serious penalties may be used, including wearing dressy uniform every school day for several days and/or remaining in the office until a parent provides the correct dress.
 - Generally, one day counts as one violation unless deliberate and continual patterns of violation behavior are shown
- 6-8 Students who have a dress code violation:
 - must wear dressy uniform on Friday of that week.
 - Three violations of the same dress code element will result in the loss of that dress code element. For example, three violations of skirt length element results in no longer being able to wear skirts.
 - Generally, one day counts as one violation unless deliberate and continual patterns of violation behavior are shown.
- MODESTY VIOLATIONS - If the violation is related to modesty:
 - Elementary - parents will be contacted by the teacher to address the violation and discuss if it is necessary to bring an immediate change of clothes. Repeated violations may result in the loss of that dress code element.
 - Middle School - students will be sent to the office to be checked; Parents will then be contacted to bring a change of clothes. Repeated violations will result in the loss of that dress code element. If possible, the student may be loaned an appropriate item, depending on availability*. (*It is not the school's intent/obligation to keep an inventory of every size/gender of clothing for this purpose. The school has a limited inventory, of which the priority is to provide items for emergency accidents only. If a student is loaned an article of clothing, they must return the item, clean and in its original condition, or replace it with the same.)
