Middle School History Teacher

ECCS is seeking candidates for the position of Middle School History Teacher for the 2026-2027 school year. Candidates for this part time position must be in agreement with the school theology, philosophy, and methodology of teaching. Candidates must also demonstrate the ability to integrate skill development and subject content through a Charlotte Mason approach, using living books and rich ideas to nourish and guide instruction using the designated history curriculum. To these ends, we seek a teacher with qualifications in the following areas:

- Communicates a passion for teaching and learning both in the classroom and in life.
- Demonstrates a commitment to developing and maintaining positive teacher/student relationships and promotes student engagement through their teaching.
- Understands and embraces the philosophy of the covenant school and its uniqueness. Stays current on recent trends, innovations, and research in teaching content.
- Develops instruction plans, prepares materials, and prepares the classroom for class activities.
- Ensures the implementation of the 8th Grade History curriculum according to the scope and sequence outlined in the school curriculum handbook.
- Observes and evaluates students' knowledge and academic abilities to the end of appropriate lesson progression and developmental expectations.
- Keeps appropriate student records.
- Effectively integrates lessons with biblical principles showing a proper understanding of the child as an image bearer as well as a sinner in need of a Savior.
- Demonstrates a commitment to whole child teaching and learning as well as developmentally appropriate instructional strategies.
- Utilizes manipulatives and hands-on learning.
- Maintains a classroom atmosphere consistent with the school philosophy and utilizes classroom management skills that promote an orderly, positive, and creative/natural learning environment.
- Understands the parent as the primary educator of the child and the need to work to maintain a positive parent and teacher partnership.
- Keeps parents and administration adequately informed of student progress or deficiencies and gives sufficient notice of issues requiring intervention.
- Uses opportunities to display student work which positively demonstrates student learning, communicates the rich ECCS curriculum to parents and visitors, and creates an inviting classroom atmosphere.
- Participates in all calendared school functions (including parent meetings, school programs and special events), staff development days, in-service, and post planning days.
- Middle grades History and/or Education degree along with teaching certificate is preferred.
- Prior middle school classroom teaching experience is preferred.

The ideal candidate for this position is someone who is passionate about approaching middle school history education as the development of relationships with God, His creation, others, and themselves. In addition, candidates should be able to articulate a clear Christian testimony, be active in a local church community and demonstrate an ability to come alongside parents in covenant partnership. This position is a part-time position, and the salary is commensurate with the candidate's education, certification and experience. Interested candidates should send their resume with a cover letter to billy.creech@eccs.org.
